Millennialism, premillennialism and dispensationalism are all theories of the end of the world.

BBC - Religions - Christianity: End Times

With so much chaos and confusion in the world today, many wonder if we are living in the End Times. Maybe you've heard predictions of when the world will end. Or perhaps you're too afraid to even think about it. It's true that the world is straying from God, and the Bible points to several warnings we can see all around us.

5 Billy Graham Answers on the End Times

The Bible describes events and conditions that would mark "the conclusion of the [current] system of things," or "the end of the world." (Matthew 24:3; King James Version) The Bible calls this time period "the last days" and the "time of the end," or "end times." (2 Timothy 3:1; Daniel 8: 19; Easy-to-Read Version) The following are some outstanding features of last-days, or ...

"End Times" Prophecy—Sign of the Last Days

The preterist movement essentially teaches that all the end-times prophecies of the New Testament were fulfilled in AD 70 when the Romans attacked and destroyed Jerusalem. Preterism teaches that every event normally associated with the end times—Christ's second coming, the tribulation, the resurrection of the dead, the final judgment—has already happened.

What is the preterist view of the end times ...

Their view teaches that the church must experience most of the Tribulation, and then be raptured towards the end of the Tribulation period. Partial Rapture: This theory teaches that the faithful born-again believers are raptured just before the Tribulation. Newly born again believers are are raptured during or at the end of the Tribulation.

Eschatology, end times, & millennialism: Competing theories

The rapture theory teaches a separation BEFORE the end. But the Bible clearly teaches that there is NO separation before the end. This also proves the mid-tribulation rapture teaching to be false. Those who hold to the mid-tribulation rapture theory, believe (just like the pre-trib teachers), that the separation takes place BEFORE the end of the world.
